Bad Stomach Makes Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclean churn. The stomach serves as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it be weak, sluggish and foul the result will be torpid, singgish liver and bad, impure blood.

The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are just such as lest serve to correct and cure all such derangements. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition; chemfeally pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol. Now this glycerine is of itself a valuable medicine, instead of a deleterious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia and the various forms of indigestion. Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of it:

"In dyspepsia it serves an excellent purpose." It is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon enfeebled, disordered stomachs, deperially if there is ulceration or catarrial gastritis dealarrhal inflammation of stomachs. It is a most efficient preparation (typerine will refleve many cases of pyrosis heartburn and excessive gastric action; It is need in and cases and case in a such and case and cas chronic constitution, situations the secretory and exceptory functions of the intestinal glands."

When combined, in just the right proportions, with Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot and Mandrake root, or the extracts of these, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, there can be no doubt of its great efficacy in the cure of all stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and derangements. These several ingredients have the strongest endorsement in all such cases of such eminent medical leaders as Prof. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College Chicago; Prof. Hobart A. Here, M. D., of Medical Department, University of Pa; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Medical College, Chicago; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D. and Prof. John King, M. D., Authors of the American Dispensatory; and scores of others among the leading medical men of our land. Who can doubt the currative virtues of a medicine the ingredients of which have such a professional endorsement?

DISORDER AT DOWIE'S FUNER/ L of John Alexander Dowie ve erday afternoon was marked by disorder and panic. The climax in the day's events was reached when hundreds at Shiloh House were thrown into confusion by

This followed the arousing of the police department of Zion City by a enort that ghouls had planned a raid on Dowie's vault in Lake Mount Cemetery to decapitate the corpse and steal the brains of Zion's founder. To add to the confusion, the funeral services were temporarily held up, and the ar-re-t o Gladstone Dowie was threatened 5-cause no bural permit had been secured of the cemetery management.

ment the crowd was in an uproar. The hief resisted arrest when a policeman ed several men, believed to have been ne crook's companions, interlered and re-cued the prisoner. The men rushed from the house, jostling several Zion cuards from their path, and made their escape toward the railroad tracks.

The private service for the family and the Dowie followers was held at Shiloh House at 1:30 o'clock. The exercises were simple. About 200 were present at this service, in addition to Gladstone Dowie and Mrs. Dowie.

The body was then taken to the Tab ernacle, where a large part of the assem-blage had long been scated. It was occessary for the aids to clear the space leading to the doors before the casket could be taken it.

The music and ritual reading was carried out as planned, Judge Barnes delivering the funeral address.

Four White Horses for Bailey.

"I make a motion that a committee be appointed to arrange for a carriage to be drawn by four white horses to carry Hon. J. W. Bailey in the parade of next Monday night. Do I hear a second?" was the motion put by Chief of Police Maddox, of Fort Worth, before the general entertainment committee of the state of th he Mystic Knights of Bovinia at Dallas, Texas, yesterday. Before he had the ast words finished in his motion, pracneally every member present jumped to his feet and said "I second the motion." The Chair rapped for order and put the question without discussion. The vote accorded the junior United States Sens-

This parade of the Mystic Kuights of Bovinia is to be the most elaborate incident of the festivities of the Fat Stock Show and the annual meeting of the
